Classic Literature Series

To write means more than putting pretty words on a page.
The act of writing is to share a part of your soul with the world.

The "Classic Literature" is an exclusive series of lavishly designed notebooks which pays a reverent homage to some of the most important and ubiquitous writers from history. By using vintage imageries and design techniques it intends to convey a very unique feel and give towering literary figures freshness and a new breath of life in a century that has remembered their names but all but forgotten the essence of their gargantuan endeavors.

AVAILABLE IN B6 FORMAT

- size: 120x168mm
- Hard cover
- 70gr writing paper

The “Classic Literature” series celebrates visions and metaphors that have both haunted and elevated humanity, images of uplifting splendor or hallucinatory nightmares that are by now firmly rooted in our collective unconscious.

Skriptie

Each of the notebooks is accompanied by a carefully selected and universally appreciated quote from the author it honors, enriching the images with extra depth and relevance.
